STONE 'N' STRING

Stone N String to glitter more with South Asian Games exclusive deal

Stone N String has recently been appointed as the exclusive license holder for the 10th South Asian Federation (SAF) Games. The event is scheduled to be held in Colombo from August 18 to 28, 2006.

The company, based in Sri Lanka, will be responsible for producing and distributing all the souvenirs for the games. This includes T-shirts, caps, pens, and other promotional items.

Stone N String's managing director, Therotha Din, expressed his excitement about the opportunity. He said, "We are delighted to be appointed the exclusive license holder for the SAF Games. This is a great honor and a chance for us to showcase our products to a wider audience."

The SAF Games are one of the largest multi-sport events in the South Asian region. They attract athletes and spectators from across the region, making them a significant event for the area.

Stone N String has a long history of producing high-quality souvenirs and promotional items. Their products are known for their durability and attractive designs. This new contract is a testament to their reputation in the industry.

The company plans to launch a wide range of souvenirs for the games, including T-shirts in various colors, caps, pens, and other items. These items will be available to athletes, officials, and spectators alike.

Stone N String is committed to providing excellent customer service and ensuring that all their products meet the highest standards of quality. They look forward to working closely with the SAF Games organizers to ensure a successful event.
